

TO CHECK GOLD EXPORTS.

BANKERS TO THE RESCUE WITH A COMPREHENSIVE PLAN.

As the result of a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. Tappan of the Gallatin National Bank, a plan was formulated to check the gold exports of the country. The plan was adopted by the bankers present, and it is expected that it will be put into effect at once. The plan is a comprehensive one, and it is expected that it will be successful in checking the gold exports of the country. The plan is as follows: The bankers will issue a statement of the gold exports of the country, and they will then issue a statement of the gold imports of the country. They will then compare the two statements, and they will then issue a statement of the difference between the two. This statement will be issued to the public, and it will be expected that it will be successful in checking the gold exports of the country.

PRINCESS MAUD WEDDED.

HER MARRIAGE TO PRINCE CHARLES YESTERDAY.

Immaculate Outfittings of the People to the Procession—Services in the Chapel—Queen Victoria Receives the Homage of Her Subjects with Streaming Eyes.
Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.
LONDON, July 22.—The wedding of Princess Maud of Wales to Prince Charles of Denmark was a most brilliant affair. The ceremony took place in the Chapel of St. George, at Windsor, and it was attended by a large number of guests. The Queen and the Prince of Wales were present, and they were both very happy to see their daughter married. The ceremony was a most beautiful one, and it was a great day for the British people. The Princess Maud was married to Prince Charles of Denmark, and they will now live together in the United Kingdom.

LIGHTNING AT SEA GIB CAMP.

Two Holders Struck Down and Others Shocked During a Storm.

STATE CAMP, Sea Girt, July 22.—Peculiar experiences on the part of the 1,600 New Jersey soldiers at the State Camp, Sea Girt, during the night of the 21st and 22nd inst., were described by the Second Brigade commander, Major General J. H. Smith, in a report to the Adjutant General. The report states that the night was a most stormy one, and that the soldiers were very much shocked by the lightning. Two soldiers were struck down by the lightning, and others were very much shocked. The report also states that the soldiers were very much surprised by the lightning, and that they were very much shocked by the lightning.

DRIFTING TOWARD BRYAN.

"MIDDLE OF THE ROAD" POPULISTS DESERTED BY LEADERS.

Anti-Bryan Men Without Organization, but Determined to Fight to the Very Last—They Have Hopes to Win Back Chairman Taubeneck and Senator Butler—Peffer Says He Must Be Either Bryan or McKinley—Many Populists of Senator Jones, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, in Pleading for Bryan.
St. Louis, July 22.—It is now universally accepted that the "Middle of the Road" Populists have been practically deserted by their leaders. The "Middle of the Road" Populists are now without organization, but they are determined to fight to the very last. They have hopes to win back Chairman Taubeneck and Senator Butler. Peffer says he must be either Bryan or McKinley. Many Populists of Senator Jones, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, are pleading for Bryan.

POPULISTS IN SESSION.

MANY OF THE DELEGATES IN SHIRT SLEEVES, NONE WITHOUT SHOES.

The Convention Hall Barren Because Hundreds of Populists Stand Outside, the Entrance Fee Being One Dollar—Coats and Waistcoats Taken Off—The Entrance of the Delegates and the Prayer of the Rev. Mr. Smith—Gov. Stone Welcomes the Delegates and Ignatius Donnelly Replies—Senator Butler's Diplomatic Speech on Taking the Chair—Night Session a Failure Because of Lack of Light.
St. Louis, July 22.—The Populists who are running this Convention have their own way of greeting the representatives of the Eastern newspapers. They grasp the newspaperman by the hand and say, "How are you, my friend?" This is one of the things that the Eastern newspapers do not understand to-day. The Populists are in session, and many of the delegates are in shirt sleeves, none without shoes. The entrance fee is one dollar. The entrance of the delegates and the prayer of the Rev. Mr. Smith. Gov. Stone welcomes the delegates and Ignatius Donnelly replies. Senator Butler's diplomatic speech on taking the chair. Night session a failure because of lack of light.

ROSTON BANKS WILL HELP.

Subscribing a Part of Their Gold Holdings to Replenish the Reserve.

BOSTON, July 22.—Boston bankers are coming forward in pursuance of the course taken in New York yesterday, and are subscribing a part of their gold holdings to replenish the reserve. The Roston Banks will help. Subscribing a part of their gold holdings to replenish the reserve.

STUCK AN ICEBERG.

The Steamer Concordia Nearly Wrecked by Collision in Belle Isle Strait.

St. James, N. E., July 22.—The Concordia, a steamer, was nearly wrecked by collision in Belle Isle Strait. The Concordia was a large steamer, and it was nearly wrecked by collision with an iceberg. The Concordia was a large steamer, and it was nearly wrecked by collision with an iceberg.

SOMETHING NEW IN THE SKY.

Prof. Brooks's Observation of a Meteor Between the Earth and the Moon.

GENEVA, N. Y., July 22.—Prof. William R. Brooks, director of the Smith Observatory, has made a most interesting and unique discovery. He has observed a meteor between the Earth and the Moon. The meteor was a small object, and it was observed between the Earth and the Moon.